PNC BANK, COLORADO ROCKIES RAISE $20,000 FOR DENVER CHILDREN'S FOUNDATION

DENVER, Sept. 30, 2024– PNC Bank and the Colorado Rockies have raised $20,000 for Denver Children's Foundation through the Saves for Kids program to support at-risk youth in the Denver community. In April 2024, the Colorado Rockies Foundation launched Saves for Kids, which generates a donation for every save the Rockies record at home during the regular season, up to $20,000. Boosted by the team's 37 saves during the 2024 MLB regular season (as of Sept. 26, 2024), the Denver Children's Foundation has received $20,000 to support their programming.

Denver Children's Foundation raises and distributes funds for Colorado-based children's charities in the areas of education, health and well-being, child advocacy and personal enrichment. The Saves for Kids program expands on DCF's long-standing community relationships with PNC Bank and the Rockies.

"We are thrilled with the success of Saves for Kids," said Walker Monfort, Rockies vice president of Corporate Partnerships. "We thank PNC Bank for their continued partnership, and we are confident this funding will make a positive impact not only for the children benefited by the Denver Children's Foundation, but also for the future of our community."

Saves for Kids aligns with PNC's commitment to moving all forward financially. In addition to the philanthropic initiative, PNC also enjoys a multi-year naming rights sponsorship of the PNC Press Club with the Rockies at Coors Field. PNC Bank serves the Denver community with financial products and services for personal and business banking, along with commercial and corporate banking.

"Saves for Kids is a natural extension of our relationship with the Rockies," said Ryan Beiser, PNC Regional President for Colorado. "As a local bank with national capabilities, PNC is committed to serving the communities where we live, work and play. The stronger our community is, the better our business and economic growth will be. With organizations like the Colorado Rockies Foundation and the Denver Children's Foundation stepping up to the plate, the future is bright for Colorado's children."

The 2024 Saves for Kids program was celebrated with a special on-field presentation when the Rockies hosted the St. Louis Cardinals Sept. 24 at Coors Field.

"We are incredibly thankful for our collaboration with PNC Bank and the Colorado Rockies Foundation," said Beau Jenkins, president of Denver Children's Foundation. "Their commitment to the children in our community is unwavering, and their support of our organization will benefit the future of Denver for years to come."
